The full color see-through head mounted display (HMD) which consists of two transmission-type HOEs, two parallel plane mirrors and a single image source is proposed. The red, green and blue incident light will overlap at the output HOE. Then the dispersion of transmission hologram will be compensated.