Sun. May 22, 2016 3:20 PM - 5:00 PM 301A (3F)

At the next Course of Study, not only the acquisition of knowledge, but qualities and abilities to develop has become an agenda. It is necessary to consider the learning content and learning methods in order to achieve these goals. As for the former contents of the basic subjects of geography and geoscience, and as for the latter is the practice of so-called active learning. These will be introduced with the actual class examples, and we would like to discuss them.

4:30 PM - 5:00 PM
