

What do students have the concept related to ocean floor?

*Norihito Kawamura¹

1. Faculty of Education and Human Studies, Akita University

The author conducted the questionnaire research to the lower secondary school students. A finding from the results is some students would construct the concept on the basis of study contents about deposition off the coast and igneous rocks.

Keywords: geoconcept, Pacific Ocean, seabed topography, submarine geology, fossil