

Long-term forecast of earthquakes and nuclear power plants: tsunami earthquake and 2011 severe accident

*Kunihiko Shimazaki¹

1. University of Tokyo

A warning of great tsunami earthquake in a long zone along the Japan trench was publicized in 2002 by Earthquake Research Committee, a unique governmental organization for national earthquake information. Tokyo Electric Company (TEPCO) made no tsunami measures till 11 March 2011, which caused severe accidents. This report describes responses of TEPCO, Central Disaster Management Council, etc.

Keywords: Nuclear Power Plant, tsunami earthquake